Managing PPP Contracts & Negotiating

Course code: CL178 From: 02-12-2024 Venue: Kuala Lumpur - Course Fees: 4445 £

Introduction

This PPP Contract and Negotiation Management Training Course delves into PPP from its fundamentals to real-world examples, learning from the successes and failures of PPP projects around the world. Best practice recommendations for project evaluation, contracting, procurement, and contract management will be presented, demonstrated, and tested.

This training course dispels some common myths and misconceptions about public-private partnerships (PPPs) and addresses important practical issues such as:

PPPs can mobilize private sector investment and expertise to provide desired infrastructure and public services. Governments and contracting authorities can be transformed from asset owners and operators to knowledgeable private service buyers. However, with more than 110 countries competing for PPP funding and expertise, success is dependent on public-private sector capacity building and understanding of PPP.

This training course will highlight:

- Best Practice for Project Evaluation and Procurement
- What makes a "bankable" PPP?
- How to use Payment Mechanisms to incentivize or enforce Contractual Performance?
- The Lessons we can learn from PPP Successes and Failures
- The Essential Role of Good Contract Management □ from beginning to end

Course Objectives of Managing PPP Contracts & Negotiating

This training course will improve your ability to determine if PPP is the best technique for your project and ensure that you have the terms and conditions and contract management techniques to ensure long-term success.

At the end of this training course, you will learn to:

- Analyze and evaluate project proposals to decide whether they are suitable for PPP
- Apply best practices in procurement, promoting transparency, fairness, and "bankability"
- Understand where contractual disputes are most likely to arise, and how to deal with them
- Decide how best to respond to problems, and how to rescue a PPP
- Determine how to secure and maintain political and public confidence in PPP

Course Methodology of Managing PPP Contracts & Negotiating

In this contract management training course, professional trainers utilize the hands-on experience and extensive discussions with policymakers, ministers, judicial authorities, PPP entities, private sector contractors, and funders in Africa and all around the world. This training course combines presentations with hands-on case studies and interactive activities to ensure that participants have plenty of opportunities to discuss, challenge, and understand the principles of PPP.

Organizational Impact of Managing PPP Contracts & Negotiating

By examining the experiences of others, you can learn success and avoid failure. This training course uses best practices and practical examples of well-documented cases to maximize your team's chances of success. Through hands-on examples, open discussions, and interactive exercises, teams gain the skills and confidence to deliver a successful PPP.

Personal Impact of Managing PPP Contracts & Negotiating

Your team members will learn and have the opportunity to practice techniques for:

- Evaluating project proposals, whether invited or unsolicited
- Managing or mitigating demand risk
- Drafting, negotiating and managing performance of high-quality PPP contracts
- Accurately and confidently deciding how best to respond to delays, problems or unforeseen events
